Ontario County
Seneca County

Children & Youth Outreach Services

Children & Youth Outreach Services are intended to be a short-term service for children and youths with mental health symptoms or emotional difficulties.

The program is person-centered and based on identified needs of the individual. Additional support is provided through linkages, advocacy, assessments, and referrals to other services. This program is available to Ontario and Seneca County residents at no cost and who are between the ages of five and eighteen years.

How Can Outreach Help

Lakeview can provide linkages to:

- Health providers such as mental health professionals, primary care physicians, dentists, etc.
- Educational or vocational supports
- Community resources
- Children and Youth SPOA Services (Single Point of Access)

Lakeview can provide advocacy and support for:

- School/teacher concerns
- Applications for benefits
- Other assistance as identified
