Literacy Volunteers' Office Hours Tuesdays 10am-2pm

Literacy Volunteers' of Ontario-Yates provides tutoring services to adults who want to improve their literacy. This includes: understanding, speaking, reading, and writing English; pursuing a high school equivalency diploma; preparing for the US Citizenship Exam; refreshing literacy skills for trade certifications, the military entrance exam (ASVAB), or to advance in their jobs. Since March 2022, The Geneva Public Library has been proud to offer study spaces for LVOY tutoring: <https://gplny.org/literacy-volunteers-at-geneva-public-library/> The LVOY Program Coordinator is regularly available, in the Library's 2nd Floor Study Room, on Tuesdays and Wednesdays to answer any questions about getting help with tutoring or provide information about becoming a Literacy Volunteer tutor. Find more information on their website: lvoy.org

Musical Moments

The Musical Moments recital series at the Geneva Public Library will start a new season on Friday, September 5, 2025, starting at 7:30 p.m. in the library's Reading Room. The concert will last approximately an hour and is free and open to the public. This concert will feature classical guitarist Eric J Roth. Mr. Roth will perform a concert of classical guitar music on a beautiful, authentic reproduction instrument modeled after one built in 1830. Eric will also provide information about the instrument, repertoire, composers, and history. More information about Eric's musical work, including videos, background, and information about upcoming performances, can be found on his website: www.ericjrothmusic.com. Videos can also be found on his YouTube channel: <https://www.youtube.com/user/ejrnewpaltz>.
